Real wedding

MEGAN MCTEAGUE & JOSHUA BAILEY

JULY 3, 2015

FROM MEGAN: I will never forget the way Josh proposed to me. We were coming home from the hockey season, back to my parents' house to stay for the summer because we had just purchased a new lot to build our house on. We decided to take a drive and check on our lot and the area-before I knew it, Josh was on one knee holding the most beautiful ring and asking me to marry him. When we got back to my parents' place, we had a crowd of our family and friends (who Josh had invited) waiting for us to celebrate! The entire ceremony was filled with heartfelt moments. I would have to say that sealing our vows with a kiss, and walking down the aisle with my dad, who I've always been very close to, were the most memorable parts of the wedding. We held our reception at the Liberty Grand, where our florist took her magical wand and created the most beautiful, stunning flowers and decor. I was truly blown away when I saw everything, especially my gorgeous bouquet. Our first dance to Aerosmith's "I Don't Want to Miss a Thing" was the best part of the night for Josh and me. This may sound cliché, but it felt as though it was just us in that room—until I glanced around to see our entire wedding party singing and swaying back and forth to the song, along with all the guests. It was absolutely magical!

Bridal Gown Kenneth Pool from Pearl Bridal House, pearlbridalhouse.com Cake The Wedding Cake Shoppe, theweddingcakeshoppe.com Ceremony Location Graydon Hall Manor, graydonhall.com Flowers Rachel A. Clingen, rachelaclingen.com Photography Corina V. Photography, corinavphotography.com Reception Location Liberty

Grand, libertygrand.com Wedding Planner Karina Lemke, karinalemke.com